

Suddenly
I'm wrapped up
In your life

All of a sudden
I'm with you
You're my whole life

Out of reach
Something's got you far away
Keeps you from me
You're distant
A stranger to me

Someone like you
Doesn't need someone like me
Someone like me
Always wants someone like you
Someone like you
Like you

I'm waiting
Could I wait forever
Passing the time I realize
You were everything
To me
Suddenly
I'm wrapped up in a lie

Someone like you
Doesn't need someone like me

Someone like me
Always wants someone like you
Someone like you
Like you

Suddenly
I'm wrapped up your life
All of a sudden

Someone like you
