

As I live
I move by will
Undulating through the waves
Drifting heavily

I move at will
And dream in color
Heavy with desire
Deeply, deeply
Reluctantly
Twixt the present and the mood
Heavy, heavy

As I live and breathe
I move by will
What I want is what
I need

I dare not tell
For fear this secret found
Breast the waves of this desire
Offering resistance
Reluctantly
Twixt the present and the mood
Heavy, heavy

I move at will
And dream in color
Heavy with desire
Deeply, deeply

As I live and breathe
I move by will
What I want is what
I need

Separately I come
To the conclusion this has won
For the moment, for a spell for now
For wilder and more twisted and tangled
Undulant desire
Quietly there
And I am here, I am here

I think of you
You're with me now
Keep you close and quiet like a secret
Call me Margarita
